

To God be the Glory

World Renown Concert Violinist & Missionary

"...The Spirit of God moves across a congregation as she both speaks and plays."

Broadmoor United Methodist Church

"Dr. Nikol gave one of the most powerful testimonies I've ever heard."

New Horizon Church of the Nazarene

"She is a much beloved missionary in our church..."

Community Church

"...one of the best pulpit guests we have ever had..."

First Baptist Katy

<http://www.intl-impact.org>

Born into a pastor's family in communist Bulgaria, Margaret Nikol learned firsthand about anti-Christian religious persecution at a young age. Her father was jailed because he preached the Gospel and Margaret's family suffered greatly during those difficult times.

Before Margaret was born, her mother prayed for seven years that she would be blessed with a child who would be musically talented and serve the Lord with that gift. In time, God honored her mother's heartfelt desire.

In spite of the anti-Christian persecution endured by the family, God placed Margaret Nikol in some of the best music schools behind the Iron Curtain. After studying in Bulgaria, she enrolled at the University of Moscow, where she earned her Doctorates in Musicology and Performance. Dr. Nikol studied violin with Professor David Oistrach. After winning a European violin competition, Dr. Nikol was officially assigned to work in East Germany as a concert violinist.

Margaret is the only living member of her entire family. Both of her parents and brother, all pastors in Bulgaria, gave their lives for the Gospel. Because of her determination to stay faithful to her Christian commitment, Margaret Nikol was forced in 1981 to make her dramatic escape to the West. Since then, she has lived in the United States.

Today Margaret Nikol devotes her life to serving the Lord, as she ministers to churches and Christian organizations with her outstanding music and powerful testimony of faith.

Come See & Hear her in Person